

The Turning

Composer David Quinn-Jacobs

Copyright David "Graybeard" Quinn-Jacobs, 2010, All rights reserved.

Tuning Standard

first line chord intro, then pause

C                                  Em
They say there's nothing new, under the sun
                                  Am                                  F
Nothing doing down here that ain't been done
But the way it is, and the way it was
Is not the way it'll be because Things are different now, something's changed
Some grand plan's been rearranged
C  G                                  F
O, say, can you see (4 times)

first line chord intro, then pause

I know a picture speaks with potent force
But we can't paint a future course
No dogs are barking in the night
And we all know that things aren't right
But we can't hear a trumpet sound
And we can't tell where this ship is bound

first line chord intro, then pause

Will it be a field of sorrow, a field of dreams
Or a field of opportunity?
Is it our time of life, or the time of man
Is it time to act or time to plan?
Can you hear a voice? Can you touch the stone?
Can you say the words to bring it home?

first line chord intro, then pause

Well I'm older now, I don't know how I can feel the change comin' down
You and me, we've seen it all
But we don't know if its a turn or fall
Will we bear witness? Will we be gone?
Will we learn some truth, or pass some on?

first line chord intro, then pause