

Annie Likes to Walk

BMI: 67958003

Key: C
Composer(s): David Graybeard

instrumental over first two lines verse

C F G C
Annie likes to walk, down along the shore
F G C
Where the land dissolves into the sea
C F G C
The rhythm of the waves, wears away at what she knows
F G C
The gray horizon's what she needs

instrumental over first two lines verse

'Be still my heart, be still my mind'
It's the simple prayer that she repeats
Battered and bereft, bothered and behind
She wills her self into sleep

F C C
Go to sleep dearest Annie
F C C
Forget about the troubles of this world
F C C
Let the sound of the water wash around you
G G
And remember who you were

instrumental over first two lines verse

So many hours, so many days
So many things to understand
So much keeps changing, in so many ways
So many movements in the sand refrain

instrumental over first two lines verse

Annie likes to walk, down along the shore
Where the sand shifts and whirls
The rhythm of the waves, is soothing to her soul
And she thinks she remembers who she was repeat last line 4x, slowing on last line
