A sigh emerging from within

C#m+11 Cm+11 Bm+11 A A6 A A6

I remember you, Caroline (x2)

A A6 (x4)

The softness of your tangled hair
Fragrance that still lingered there
Untied

Immersed in love, without a care

Time was stopped with your hand

In mine

refrain

I take a sip from time to time

Of that mellow summer wine

In my mind

The vintage just gets better with

The passing days, I must admit

Sometimes, but refrain (x2, only 2 patterns between, rather than 4)

repeat last line of refrain, ending on first chord of verse
