I have to say, can't understand, I hear your shouts, and your demands
I feel the hate, I smell the fear, the only things, you've ever made clear
You're deplorable
You're deplorable
You're deplorable... it's true

Afraid of difference, afraid of race, afraid of truths you don't wanna face Afraid to walk in others' shoes, you're terrified, of real news refrain

You want to win, at any cost, despite what's right, despite what's lost Kill due process, suppress the vote, keep others down, so you can gloat
refrain

A tisket a tasket, you're in that basket, you rally around, whenever they ask it Just like sheep, you're natural fools, you serve the Man with iron rule
refrain

You don't care, about the facts, all you know is you hate being taxed You b'lieve what's true is what you feel, and what you feel, will make it real
refrain

When your God, comes to call, I hope that he will take you all To some place where you'll do no harm, up to the cosmic funny farm refrain
