Amaj7 E7sus
The sun has broken free
Amaj7 E7sus
Wind's coming from the East
Fmaj7 E A
Whirling some old leaves along the ground

Sudden warmth upon my skin
And then the chill again
The damp smell of the woods is all around

Dm7 Amaj7(hi)
What a day to see
Dm7 Amaj7(hi)
What a time to be
Dm7 Amaj7(hi)
What a way to feel
Fmaj7 E A
It's just between you and me

Shards of ice are free
And melting in the creek
The water's flowing gently to the South

And now we're holding hands
Remaking some old plans
I long to feel your kiss upon my mouth

Your halting steps and mine
Beat slowly to the time
We have been here many times before

But the coldness of the North
Is no longer on its course
And we don't have a heading any more

bridge

We see our memories
Off romping through the trees
We stop awhile, decide to take a rest

We wait to hear and see
To let ourselves just be
While the sun is setting down into the West
