Key: C
Composer(s): David Graybeard

Am F G C
The other night I had a dream
Am F G C
About a man dressed all in green
Am F G C
A greenish tinge suffused his skin
Am F G C
His eyes revealed green light within
C Am F C
The green man was so very wise
Am F G C
He bade me open up my eyes
C Am F C
You have to pass through dark to light
Am F G C
To see the day you need the night

He invited me to come out and play
A scary and a shameful game
He lost his head, I lost my blinds
Now I rejoice at Solsticetime

refrain

I used to think that I had it all
I wore my pride before my fall
Now I know I've made mistakes
I was asleep, now I'm awake

refrain

And now I wear a bit of green Reminds me just where I have been Life comes back with each new year
Hope replaces the darkest fears

refrain

So wear a little green, now and then Remembering it returns again
Buds and shoots will come back soon
There, on the other side of gloom

refrain
