Gotta leave it all behind, gonna blow this town

Pressure has been buildin', since a long time ago
But lately it's been different, it's movin' faster now
But you don't wanna see it, and you don't wanna know

One more little spark, the whole thing's gonna blow
Wind is pickin' up, coals are startin' to glow
Ask me how to stop it, you know I just don't know

refrain

Time and time again, town after town
This same crazy thing, is always goin' down
Why do you keep askin', why I don't stick' around

You shoulda seen it comin', it was clear as it could be
But you wouldn't stop and think, you wouldn't listen to me
This thing is gonna blow, just you wait and see

refrain

Gonna miss this place, but we are really screwed Wish that there was somethin', something I could do
But I'm feelin' pretty helpless, I'm am dazed and I'm confused

I wanna say goodbye, but I'm so angry I could bust
Don't know who to say it to, don't know who to trust
This didn't have to happen but, but I guess now it does

refrain
