Cadd9 G D
I ain't ready for the cold (4 times, with soft vocals)

instrumental over first two lines of verse

The days are growing dimmer, the sunlight's cold and weak
The chorus of the peepers, has long since passed its peak
The squash down in the garden, is ready to bring in The leaves and vines are yellowing, they're cold against my skin refrain and bridge

instrumental over first two lines of verse

So many things need doin', so many things half done
So much to remember, 'fore the cold and dark comes on The wood I haven't stacked yet, the songs I haven't sung
The words I haven't written yet, unborn upon my tongue
refrain and bridge

instrumental over first two lines of verse

I wake up every morning and feel each passing day
They all rush by so quickly now, as if I have no say What happened to the summer time, what happened to the spring?
What happened to my childhood, what will the future bring?
refrain and bridge
