instrumental over verse

E A7
Ain't been down to the crossroads
E A
Wasn't born dirt poor
E A7
I'm solid middle class
E A
All the way to my toes
C#7 C7 B7 E7
But still, I really dig the blues
C#7 C7 B7 E7
Yeah still, I really dig the blues
E A7
I ain't from the delta
E A
Ain't from the southwest
E A7
Never lived in Chitown
E A
Most ways my life's been blessed
But still... (x2)

instrumental over verse and refrain

I listened to George Carlin
Heard what he had to say
Sounded kind of funny
But it really ain't that way
That's why... (x2)

The blues is for everybody
It sinks into your soul
Puts feeling into jazz
And heart into rock and roll
That's why... (x2)

instrumental over verse and refrain

Koko Taylor made me giddy
Tedeschi makes me weep
Buddy Guy can rip those licks
Stevie Ray had that feel
That's why... (x2)

When Burnside sings those muddy songs
Just can't help but feel
The blues has got you by the balls
And it'll make you kneel

That's why... (repeat last line, slowly, to end}
