instrumental over first two lines of verse

When the sun comes out, begins to shine
And lights up the corners, in the backrooms of my mind
When the rain slips in, with memories of the flood
When I can feel it coursing, like a river in my blood
That's when I find
That's when I find
That's when I find I'm alive

instrumental over first two lines of verse

When I look out, and all that I can see
Are the leaves and the light, in a thousand shades of green
When a deer passes by, silent and serene Leaving no trace, of ever having been refrain

instrumental over first two lines of verse

When the cold descends, from the dusking sky
When woods go gray in the last of the light
When darkness falls, and dampens all the sound When it draws in close, and it has me bound
refrain

instrumental over first two lines of verse

When coyotes cry, in the quiet of the night
And a chill runs through, up and down my spine
When the face of a friend, in the fire's dancing light Reveals to me, that everything's alright
refrain
