Who lays it on too thick
Ain't no Omni-everything
Whose load you must be carrying

C

Let's do it

G

We'll make a joyful noise

D

No Hand to hold on high
No Force makes you comply
No Master to your Blaster
No Original Disaster

No Friend who holds the threat
That He controls your death
No love is held as ransom
No eternal anthem

refrain

There's another way to be Living, thinking free
Opening the way
To a more authentic day

Something we create
Crafting our own fate
Managing disasters
Becoming our own masters

refrain
