The old woman with the blindfold can't be found C D G
And even Uncle Sam has gone to ground C D G
D Now that the C man has come to town G (x2)

Jethro Bodine is giving head
To the remnants of the cast of the Walking Dead
The somber pilgrim's stocking up on white bread
And the Stepford wives have given it the go ahead
Now that the man said what he said (x2)

The guy downtown's got deja vu again
Things look to him just like they did back when
Doesn't know anymore just who can be his friend
Wants someone else to pay that isn't him
Now that the man is here again (x2)

Jihadi Jack's waving his gun around
Listenin' for that dog whistle sound
He's lookin' for, someone he can pound
So that he, can be heaven bound
Now that his king has just been crowned

Martha Sue's wantin' to protect
Somethin' that her god never said
She's just so happy to pretend
That she's in control in the end
Now that the man's her special friend (x2)

And the guy down on the corner don't give a shit
Gives up one more time and takes a hit
Throws away a precious gift
Puts himself on a permanent waiting list
Helpin' the man, without knowin' it (x2)
