Am C D F
Another killin' spree, is anybody keepin' score
Am C D F
Another rageaholic, loadin' up for more
Am C D F
Another round of grief, another round of blame
Am C D F
It'll soon be forgotten, cuz it's just more of the same

Another innocent person, struck down for being trans
Another homeless soul is lost, to a vigilante gang
Another group of cops, beat someone cuz he's black
Assault and battery, on those who can't fight back

Am G F Am
What's it gonna take, what's it gonna cost?
Am G F Am
Are we too late, are we already lost?

Another bloated billionaire, another overgrown child
Another puffed-up oligarch, one more id gone wild
Another viral post, another pack of lies
Another act of treason, and no one bats an eye

Another private satellite, controlling who is who Another government contract, is going up there too
Another law obscuring, the deaths from robot cars
Another way to hide, their barbarity from our eyes

refrain

Another civil right, being stripped away
Another legal precedent, we thought was here to stay
Another public land, raped for short-term goals
Another loss of privacy, as the few take more control

Another regulation's, protection is withdrawn
Another social safety net, cannot be relied upon
Scientific consensus, is thrown under the bus
While fundamentalist dogma's, imposed on the rest of us

refrain

Another wild hurricane, rippin' through the south
Another loose tornado, sweepin' through another town
Another chunk of ice, fallin' to the sea
Another piece of coastline, that we'll never see

Why are some people, so determined not to see
The truth that's right in front of them, somethin' clear and real?
Why seek delusion, why join in the hate?
Why flock to demagogues, holding out the bait?
