

Still Here

Key: A
Normal Capo: 2
Composer(s): David Graybeard
Using Capo?: Yes

instrumental over first line

I can still hear your voice, from your overstuffed chair
It drifts through the house, always starts out from there Part of you is gone now, but darlin' you're still near
I still reach for your hand, when I lie in bed at night
The body still remembers, after all of this time
All the love that you gave me, still brings me peace of mind

Still here with me, with every breath I take Still here with me, I still see your face Still here with me, we were linked by fate instrumental over verse

The old songs that we loved, sound a little sweeter now
Their melodies recall things, we didn't often say out loud
I'm hopin' you are somewhere, maybe hearin' me somehow refrain

Our love didn't end, it lives within these walls
Softly in the background, quiet echoes in the halls
I feel you in the stillness, like you haven't left at all

Sometimes I pace at night, walkin' room to room Every door I open, lets the memories rush through This house ain't really empty, it feels a lot like you

The world's a bit more quiet, than it used to be There's a stillness in the morning, I'm still findin' my peace
But the things you left behind, you left 'em safely here with me

refrain, slowing to end
