

A Thin Veneer

BMI: 79740983

Key: Bm

Normal Capo: 2

Composer(s): David Graybeard

Using Capo?: Yes

Am F
I thought you were a human
C G
I thought you had a heart
Am F
Your mind had been illumined
C G
And that you'd do your part

I thought you had intelligence
I thought you were aware
I thought you had some relevance
And I thought that you could care, but

F G Am
It was just a thin veneer
F G Am
It's stripped away, and now it's clear
F G Am
You weren't at all as you appeared
F G Am
It was just a thin veneer

Your words are full of venom
Your eyes are full of fear
Your face has been contorted
Your lips are an ugly sneer

You're acting like an animal
You're justifying crimes
You've traded your humanity
For reassuring lies, 'cause

refrain

I wonder how it happens
How this can come to pass
How someone turns so savage
How someone goes so bad

And I wonder how this legacy
Of hatred, fear, and death
Will be viewed by history
Long after your last breath, 'cause

refrain

F G Am
Yeah it was all just a thin veneer (x2)