F7

When I woke up this morning, didn't know how bad it'd get Shouldn'a listened to my voicemail, shouldn'a logged on to the net
Shouldn'a waded through all that email, shouldn'a turned on the TV
Cuz it's getting to me baby, it's pretty plain to see

Bb

I need some downtime, got sensory overload

F7

I need some downtime, to restore my achin' soul

Bb

I need some downtime, gotta halt my CPU

F7

Need some downtime baby, to spend alone with you

Drove down to my job, listening to the radio
Spent all day on the clock, just wishin' I could go
Tried to head for home, had mandatory overtime
Now I'm bustin' at the seams, trying to keep from cryin'

refrain

Sittin' down to dinner, phone's ringing off the hook
If the subject's interruptions, man, I could write the book
Shoulda turned off all the lights, shoulda gone to bed Shoulda done a shutdown, to save my achin' head...

refrain
