As soon as I am able, gonna open up that door

Gonna go outside, try to clear my head

Just as soon as I, can get up outta this bed

It ain't 'cause I am lazy, I ain't afraid to fall

It's just that I can't give a damn, 'bout anything at all

The ship that I've been sailing, is wrecked upon the sand
I find myself a stranger, in a foreign land
The world outside's gone crazy, it's twisted in a knot
Don't like what I am seeing, and I don't want what it's got

It ain't 'cause I am crazy, I ain't afraid at all

G
It's just that I can't give a damn, 'bout anything at all

This message in a bottle, is my last faint whisper of hope
My rescuer has gotta, have a lot of rope
If you can listen carefully, if you can understand
Then I think just maybe, you can help this drowning man

It ain't 'cause I am lazy, I ain't afraid to fall
It's just that I can't give a damn, 'bout anything at all
It ain't 'cause I am crazy, I ain't afraid at all
It's just that I can't give a damn, 'bout anything at all
