Am G F Am
Welcome to the winter, a time of hate and fear
Am G F Am
The death of our democracy is drawing very near
Am G F Am
Brought to you by those who, imagined a Summer of Love
Am G F Am
Jaded old Aquarians, iron fists in tattered gloves

Em G Am
It's the winter, the Winter of Hate

Em G Am
Bleakest winter, (c)old and gray

They hated the establishment, they were tired of the rules
Tired of the shorn gray men, in worn-out old gray suits
Now they're old and gray themselves, in beards and baseball caps
No respect for anything, 'cept for what they cannot have

refrain

They fear their fellow humans, coming in from the outside
They fear the changing times, and cheer the comforting lies
The winter in their hearts, cannot be denied
They're shattering the world they loved, just before they die

They loved the one they're with, now fear's the way they die
On the eve of destruction, there's a hard rain from the sky
The peace train's off the rails, forgotten and unheard Imagining no countries, for them now seems absurd

They want us to be quiet, so we don't disturb their sleep
They want us to accept the fact, that life's not for the weak
Their fear and hate is potent, it poisons everything
So let us not talk falsely now, it's time to hear you sing

Stop the winter, stop the Winter of Hate
Stop the winter, stop the Winter of Hate
It may not yet, be too late
It may not yet, be too late
