E Abm F#m A B E

The best laid plans, so they say, often fall apart

E Abm F#m A B E

Every plan I've ever made must'a been doomed right from the start

Abm F#m A B E

Best intentions, pave the way, down that road to hell

Abm F#m A B E

Although I tried, in every way, guess mine went that way as well

Dbm B A

Good-bye, my darling boy

Dbm B A

Good-bye, my son

Dbm B A

Good-bye, my darling boy

Dbm B E

I pray I'll see you, again

Dbm B E

I pray I'll see you, again

instrumental over entire verse and refrain

Lookin' out the window, as I write these words, I watch some children play Wonderin' why, it has to come to this, how it can turn out this way
The innocence, that we shared, that filled your eyes with hope It's faded now, if it's even there, it's all gone up in smoke

refrain

instrumental over entire verse and refrain

Too many things, can twist a boy, as he becomes a man
It isn't right, it isn't fair, it's more than I can bear

refrain

repeat last line of refrain for third time, slowing down
