If I listen to an old John Prine song

instrumental/fingerpicking over verse

Simple words, mixed up just right
A friendly old dog, with a painful bite
A brand new tune, with familiarity That's the way old John will have it be instrumental/lead over verse x2

There's Gurf Morlix, Blaze Foley too
In a pinch, Steve Earle will do
When they start that regular rhythm
I know they've got some of the old Prine in 'em

instrumental/fingerpicking over verse

So let me tell you, let me recommend Let make it plain to you as I can
When you're down, you can't go wrong
If you listen to John Prine song
Yeah, when you're down, you can't go wrong
If you listen to John Prine song

repeat last two lines and end
